

Open House Saturday March 29th 11-2

118 WOODSTORK DR

Woodland Lakes
Goose Creek

MLS# 1309355 ~ $189,000

What an inviting home! An open corner lot conveniently located with easy access to both Woodland Lakes entrances. The front porch is oversized, open and has stamped stone that was custom designed. As you walk up to the front door you will be impressed with the etched glass doors. As you walk into the foyer you will see beautiful maple wood floors in the foyer, den and dining area. The foyer has a breathtaking chandelier. To the right of the foyer the hall flows with marble floors. To the left you will see a separate formal dining room and updated kitchen. It has custom made Corian countertops, porcelain sinks, stainless steel appliances and a ceramic stove. The cabinets are spacious and houses a corner turntable. The kitchen also has a kitchen nook and bay window. The laundry room is oversized and has lots of storage. There is an additional small room that could be a multipurpose room or converted into a half bath. There is a open, spacious room over garage (FROG). On the other side of the foyer, are two nice sized bedrooms and a large master bedroom with huge master bathroom. There is a stand-alone shower, dual vanity, and a his and her closet in the master bath. One of the closets is a much desired walk in closet. There is an alarm system and a life alert system. This home is located in a comfortable neighborhood that you could call home.
