This gem won't last long. Charleston style home with 2nd floor balcony to enjoy morning coffee off of the spacious master bedroom. This home has a spacious, open living area on first floor and is conducive to family get togethers, and at the end of the day there is plenty of room for everybody to relax. The kitchen has a gas range and an over sized island. The room located next to the front entrance can be a formal dining room. The house has a great flow, and is just a few yards from a neighborhood pool and recreation area. In addition to having a couple of places in the front to sit outside and relax, there is also a screen porch in a fenced backyard, and a two car detached garage.
