This home supersedes any fantasy you may have ever had about what living in Charleston is all about! If your fantasy included thoughts or words like "DEEP WATER", "ECLECTIC" and/or "SCANDANAVIAN LUXURY IN THE LOW COUNTRY" then your fantasy might be about this home. Now you may be asking "What on earth does Scandanavian Luxury in the Low Country mean?????" To give you an idea of what we are talking about, the present owner of this home is from Sweden and has put her elegant touches all through this home to the point where it was featured in a luxury home magazine in Europe alongside the home belonging to the King and Queen of Sweden. The list of exquisite features that this home possesses includes a landscaped and imported soft lawn from Sweden complete with irrigation system, a huge custom farmhouse kitchen in solid oak, an extra-large movable island in the kitchen with a media/computer tower matching the kitchen cabinets, a 6 burner Viking convection stove/oven and matching stainless steel hood, a large GE monogram fridge, slate kitchen floor, white-oak built-in bookcases lining the walls in the family room and office, a sun-room off of the spacious master bedroom on the main level, a $1,500 "Fannimation" fan and 4 substantial closets in that Master Bedroom, a spacious spa-like master bath remodeled in 2006 in marble with his and her sinks, garden tub and a walk-in shower, carved European closet doors in the foyer and a sauna imported from Finland in the pool house. On the second floor are 5 bedrooms, a huge linen room/could be office, media room and an in-between room that could also be an office with a built in storage closet. Walking from any of the large glass patio doors on the main level you step onto a large deck overlooking Bull Creek, an exquisite Italian tile pool with a Jacuzzi and a pool house. Walk out to your own 23-foot jet dock where you can moor your boat which can take you on a Magical Mystery Tour from the deep water of Bull Creek to the Ashley River to the Ocean. You may imagine yourself paying millions for this kind of home and, no, it is NOT a short sale... but rather a bargain that is just priced like a short sale. Yes... this can all be yours for the BEST VALUE for a mansion on the deep water in all of Greater Charleston!
