If you're looking for a premier location with a fantastic home you have found it. Surrounded by old growth oaks and lush landscape, this home delivers a true sense of privacy, with second story views that make you feel as if you are tucked among the treetops. This distinctive home's exterior blends modern with farmhouse touches, and was built by the developer/ architect to take advantage of the natural beauty of Johns Island. Built in 2012 this charming home boasts soaring ceilings on the first floor, Brazilian cherry hardwood floors, beautiful moldings, and a bright, open floor plan. The kitchen includes Granite countertops, center island, oversized stainless steel farmhouse sink, shaker-style cabinets and walk-in pantry.
