Historic Charleston Home "Survivor" of the 1886 Charleston Earthquake. Situated within the Historic District of Downtown Charleston and a short distance of all that Downtown Charleston has to offer. This is a wonderful and unique home situated on the 2nd and 3rd floors of a once Grand Single Family Residence. Spacious rooms and a wonderful open floor plan this home offers oversize rooms, high ceilings and a great detail of wood molding and trim. Updated kitchen with Quartz countertops and patterned flooring, this home offers the best of a well maintained yet classic design and appeal. Second and 3rd floor terraces and decking provide a sanctuary and serenity not found in many homes.
