Country Charm - Charleston Charm - Southern Charm, there are so many ways to say it but let me welcome you home into this amazingly charming double porch dream come true. If rocking chairs and sweet tea is your thing then this alluring from the front door to the back door will be your next address. This Woodland model located in white gables is sprawling, the rooms, the storage, the look. Vibrant outside to sunny inside. Walking into a very attractive foyer and wrap around staircase. Follow the deep hardwood floors through the 1st floor, note the white columns & the upgrades in the kitchen, freshly painted every room & the warm & fuzzies from your fireplace, make sure and notice the mudroom coming in from the yard and extra wide garage. The chef in you will love the granite countspace and stainless steel gas stove awaiting your first homecooked meal. Eat in kitchen equipped with welcoming breakfast bar and separate dining room. Tucked away in the back of the first floor find an enormous family room, rec room, 5th bedroom? the possibilities are endless for this room. Master bedroom is located upstairs with access to sunsets and star watching from your very own veranda & sitting room to use to your liking. Enjoy the luxury of living from your garden tub or stand alone shower and private powder room your get away from it all. Outside double doors down the hall are 3 other bedrooms with considerable closet space in each room. Take a look under the stairs at the hidden storage space perfect for seasonal decorations. Make sure the yard is to your liking because your neighbors will envy the size for sure. White gables is located in DD2 school district and the amenities are over the top basketball, tennis, swimming, fishing & 2 playgrounds, don't miss out.
