This peaceful and secluded sanctuary located on the Edisto River offers an unmatched opportunity for the boat lover and true outdoorsman to have a private getaway in the heart of the South Carolina ACE Basin. This elegant, lowcountry style home is situated on over 11 acres on the banks of the Edisto, with a deep water dock and 100' floater. The spectacular grounds of this scenic setting include green wood duck pond, charming covered bridge and an expanse of manicured lawn that offers sweeping views of the river beyond. The gated driveway winds through stands of ancient oak trees and pines, and delivers you to the dramatic Porte-cochère and graceful, arched entryway.
