

Open House Saturday from 1-3

2305 Palm Boulevard

Isle of Palms, SC 29451 ~ MLS# 18016909 ~ $2,499,990

When you build a home that's right across from the ocean on Isle of Palms, you have to maximize those views & that's exactly what this gorgeous new construction home does! Thanks to the reverse floor plan, you'll be able to see soothing water views from the main living areas in the home. A full wrap around porch & a roof top deck are crucial additional living spaces that allow you to feel the ocean breeze & are perfect for entertaining or just relaxing on after a long day at the beach. The sooner you go under contract, the more say you can have in choosing custom options & finishes. The home is set for the installation of a soaking pool & elevator so be sure stake your claim in IOP island living and make this home your very own! Its hard to beat this location & quality of construction.
