

OPEN HOUSE!

January 14th | 11 AM– 1 PM
34 Rutledge Ave

- 4 Bedroom, 2.5 Baths
- Built in 1840 and constructed in the "double-house" style, which gets its name from a central entrance with two sets of rooms on each side per floor
- Built on a high raised basement (no flooding), with open piazzas on both first and second floors featuring beautifully-restored French doors with transoms,
- Remodeled with such outstanding features as custom storm doors and windows, leaded-glass cupboards, and a modern kitchen that wraps around the historic brick chimney
- Includes a detached building with half bath and kitchen
- Harleston Village is one of the city's most private and pedestrian-friendly historic village, adjacent to the famed South of Broad district and a short walk from the heralded Battery and Four Corners of Law
