

Charming South of Broad Home

Open House Sunday 2-4pm

Charming c.1800 home located in Historic South of Broad, one of the most desirable neighborhoods in downtown Charleston. Just steps from the Battery overlooking the Charleston Harbor.

This home has all the character and charm of historic Charleston, including original heart of pine flooring, beautiful crown molding along with high ceilings. The perfect pied-a-terre which has recently been updated, freshly painted, both interior and exterior.

Private off-street parking in bricked gated driveway with lush landscaping along with a charming garden fountain that provides soothing sounds of rippling water.
