

Don't Miss the Mount Pleasant Business and Community Expo!

Greetings,

What do you have planned for this Thursday, September 18?

I would like to invite you to spend at least part of your day networking with area business people, listening to live jazz music, enjoying appetizers provided by local restaurants and possibly winning great prizes.

How can you do all this and more in one place on one day? You can attend the fourth annual Mount Pleasant Business and Community Expo. This great event will be held at the Omar Shrine Convention Center in Mount Pleasant.

The Expo, presented by the Mount Pleasant Business Association with support from Clawson and Staubes (title sponsor) and Tony Pope State Farm and the town of Mount Pleasant (community sponsors) is set from 2 p.m. to 7 p.m., but, regardless of what time you show up, there will be something going on that will interest you.

Throughout the day, you'll be able to take a look at the products and services offered by 69 exhibitors. And you'll have the chance to register for some outstanding prizes. As we did last year, we'll be giving away an iPad, but this year you'll have the opportunity to win one of more than 20 other door prizes, including golf balls, a bicycle, teeth whitening, a bowling party, an ice cream party, a hurricane kit, artwork, tax preparation services, gift cards for local restaurants and more – a lot more.

The happy hour begins at 5 p.m., with food provided by Sticky Fingers, My Father's Moustache, Raising Canes, Jimmy John's and Jimbo's Lowcountry Foods. Wine and beer will be available for you to purchase, and Lyndsey and Friends will be providing live jazz music. Since the happy hour will be held on the convention floor, you'll be able to continue to network with our exhibitors.

The really good news is that you can attend the Mount Pleasant Business and Community Expo for free – there is no admission charge.

I hope you will take advantage of this excellent opportunity to do some business and at the same time have some fun. I look forward to seeing you there.

Brian Sherman, chair
MPBA Expo Committee
brisherm@comcast.net
843-437-8817

