

A close-up photograph of a wooden door handle. The handle is heavily covered in dark, fuzzy mold, particularly around the base and the grip area. The wood is light-colored, and the mold is a stark contrast. The background shows a wooden door with vertical grain and a metal hinge.

Why choose a mold dog?

Mold Dogs are Less Expensive: Results are immediate and accurate, reducing expensive remediation costs searching for mold and verifying remediation that has already taken place.

Dogs are Proven and Trusted: Dogs have been used for years by police and military to search for drugs and bombs. Europe has used dogs to detect mold for decades.

Dogs are Honest: Mold dogs work for food and attention, not for profit.

Effective Problem Solvers: For REALTORS® concerned about escrow timelines, Mold Dogs can quickly and more accurately inspect a home, which gives both parties the feedback they need to quickly and effectively resolve issues.
