

Bobby & Peggy Reese

Prior to joining Sunbelt, Bobby Reese spent almost four decades in Washington, DC, as a top negotiator for trucking, manufacturing and other consumer businesses before the US Congress, Department of Treasury, the Internal Revenue Service and other key federal agencies. Bobby gained the respect of government officials and his business colleagues as one of the most valued and trusted business representatives in the Nation's Capitol. Recently, Bobby has been an advisor to a number of local, small business owners in the Charleston metro area. Bobby is also a veteran Army officer and Paratrooper. He brings that same successful intensity and honesty to Sunbelt Business Advisors and is dedicated to helping you fulfill your goals as either a new business owner or a seller.

Business Brokerage and Sunbelt

Business Brokerage is a growing industry that is both challenging and rewarding. Sunbelt brokers facilitate ownership transition for small and medium sized companies. These highly specialized intermediaries help business sellers capitalize on their most valuable asset by converting their hard earned business equity to cash. Simultaneously, they help business buyers realize their dreams of becoming independent business owners. In short, business brokerage offers the opportunity to play a valued role at the most critical juncture of the business life cycle - ownership transition.

Is it time
for you to escape

your unwanted career and purchase a business

or time to sell your business and enjoy life?

For Sellers, Sunbelt brokers assists with determining the value of their businesses, establishing their asking price, identifying prospective Buyers, facilitating negotiations and closing arrangements, thereby enabling Sellers to concentrate on the management of their businesses during the sales process. Our broker services are designed to complement the services provided by attorneys, CPA's, bankers and other professionals. By working as a team, we are able to collectively provide our clients with a full range of services.

For Buyers, Sunbelt brokers serve as a single-source for thousands of businesses listed for sale. Our brokers, in turn, work with Buyers to target specific opportunities that match their previous business experience, skills, desires and expectations. Sunbelt brokers add value to the buy-side of the transaction by streamlining the overall sale process and expediting the timeframe in which a business is transitioned to new ownership.
